

BSA Troop 75

Code of Conduct

I, _____, understand that I must be on my best behavior during all Boy Scout activities. I further understand that misbehavior and inappropriate activities will not be tolerated. I will remember that a Scout is courteous, kind and friendly. The Troop will always work as a team. I will

1. Live by the Scout Oath

2. Live by and practice the Scout Law

3. Live by and practice the Outdoor Code, and follow Totin' Chip and Firem 'n Chit guidelines

Behaviors that are not allowed at any Scout functions include, but are not necessarily limited to:

- Disobeying junior or adult leaders
- Hazing or bullying of other Scouts
- Foul or inappropriate language of any kind
- Hitting, fighting or similar actions
- Refusing to follow Troop uniform policy
- Not following the Buddy System and other safe Scoutcraft procedures
- Leaving a designated area without an adult leader's permission
- Lying, cheating, stealing and any form of inappropriate activity
- Being uncooperative or not following the posted or verbal schedule of activities and assignments
- Disrupting activities
- Intentionally damaging property or equipment
- Refusing to take prescribed medications
- Doing anything that would be considered dangerous

Scouts must take personal responsibility for all of their own behavior, both good and bad. While one cannot control the behavior of others, one can, and must, control one's own behavior. Behavioral violations will be dealt with by the Jr. Leadership and, if necessary, the Adult Leadership. The consequences of misbehavior will vary depending upon the severity, and repetition, of the offense(s). I understand that these consequences can include warnings, sitting out during an activity, parent conferences, having a parent take me home from a Scout activity, a Disciplinary Board of Review, suspension and expulsion from the Troop.

I have discussed the behavior expectations and misbehavior consequences with my son. Furthermore, I agree to pick my son up from a Scout activity, if necessary, even if the activity is out of town, at any hour.
